Excerpt

Raymond Moody at IANDS Conference 2011

Here, Moody reveals a thread within his NDE research - the new topic of SDE or Shared Death Experience. SDE is where persons attending the dying share in aspects of that persons dying. He goes on to explain why this appears to be new and frequent when again, SDE is clearly just another part of the spiritual mystery of dying.

Meeting Death with Hope and Understanding

Discussion Question

“Hope and Understanding” is what we hoped would come from this book study. How should our “true self”, using Richard Rohr’s term, evaluate this new understanding?

- as an enigma and a false hope?
- or
- as a mystery and a true hope?
